I'm sure you misd the village inn,
The supper and the revel;
How, in the general dire and din,
Love shot his arrows level;
And don't forget how Henry Kidd
Embraced you ere he west forth, the size of his lips—you know you of
He pressed your hands, &c.

He pressed your hands, &c.
And when the forfeits all were paid,
How one old maid resisted,
How one old maid resisted,
Until the younger ladies said
A prude they all detested.
Desistl' "she cried—the ancient Ann—
Her medesty to show forth,
I'll never y leid to any man
My virgin lips, &c.

My virgin lips, &c.
The wintry winds, the homeward way.
Blew chilly in our faces.
But underseath our furs we say.
All anughy in our places;
One girl upon the forward seat—
The pretty Nellie Wentworth—
Declared Jack Frest, or Blijf Frest,
-Had pinched her cheek, &c.

Has pinced ner coses, so.
Another undernvath her robes,
(The buffalos, not her dresses,)
Fair Patience, with attendant Job,
Detected in caresses,
Sprang up, with angr., blushing face,
Her innocence to show forth,
But showed her ourls all out of place,
Her collar gone, &c.

Her coilar gone, &c.
And then the parting at the door!
Its tender, mutual blisses!
Sweet lips, from their abundant store,
Gave to the poor—in kisses!
The parting word—the leng embrace—As Cupid's arrows shot forth,
Brought fire to many a boyish face,
And raised his hopes, &c.

And raised in B hopes, &c.

Dear Stude Brown, save you and I,

Of all that load of merriment,

No other pair are left to try

Love's latest, best experiment;

Havara, Dec. 13.—After the news of Gen. Gacuis* denth spread through Bavana early Sunday evening the Cubans wished to have all the places of amusement closed. They succeeded in closing two places frequented by Cubans, but the management of the Tacon theater, where there were many Spanish officers among the audience, refused to close the house. Thereupon Allegrette, a former captain of issurgent troops, got into an excited argument with the manager of the theater and Allegrette was escorted to the sidewalk by the police on duty. There Allegrette entered into a heated diseasation with a Spanish officer, who fast of his word. Then there was a collision between the Cubans and the Spanish military men, more blows were struck on both sides, and many persons from the cafes and park cheered for Spain and brought crowds of people to the spot from adjacent streets and squares.

Suddenly a shot was fired, whether by a Cuban or by a Spaniard, intentionally or seedlentally.

Suddenly a shot was fired, whether by a Ouban or by a Spaniard, intentionally or accidentally, cannot be said, and the Cubans retreated into the Hotel Inglaterra. Then if the anti-expansionist sena-tors carry out their threat of opposing its ratification, it will be a week in-fore the rote can be had. The presi-dent and the republican leaders in the senate are not worried over the threats of the opposition and know that public opiniop will soon discounte-nance any diffusitering. A poll of the senate has been taken by the adminis-tration and the president believes that the arount ratification of the treaty

Conde of Venative

HAYARA, Dec. 13.—The ashes of Columbus were transferred from the eaththedral to the Conde de Venadito Monday morning. A large company of notables attended upon the removal. The steel caskiet containing the remains of the discoverer of America was examined by Senor Govin in the presence of Spanish officials and found to be intact.
It was then borne to the cathedral steps by the canons amid the tolling of bells and placed on a gun carriage, heavily draped with flags and decorate
with floral garlands.
A solemm procession then moved to the wharf, where the casket was taken
